Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurSergeant Amos Fuller of the United States Marines returned to civilian life only a couple of years ago. Adjusting to the civvy way of life hasn't been easy for Amos and he's kept his shaved head, military body and plethora of ink. Despite his rough and rugged exterior, thoughts of marriage and family have begun circulating in Amos' head. Those thoughts only increase when he's pulled from his life in Atlanta to help his younger sister Iris plan for her wedding in Albany. However Amos can't seem to find the right girl to make those thoughts into reality, until he sees Vanna. Vanna Sterling is an unassuming girl working in her siblings' store. While they take the lead in sales and dealing with clients, Vanna helps in the background; balancing books and building window displays. It's during one such display project that Amos spots Vanna working in the shop window. She isn't prepared for the tall, strong and tattooed marine to enter her life and peruse her with an unbreakable determination to make her his wife. This is a standalone novel with

NO CLIFFHANGER and a strong dedicated hero who will do anything to win over the love of his life. Includes a FREE copy of Lainey Fox's Igniting Her Passion Firefighter e-rom novella!
