Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThe Story that Begins Where The Hiding Place Ends, Join Corrie on a worldwide trip that could only have been planned by God. It was in a church in Munich that I saw him One moment I saw the overcoat and the brown hat; the next, a blue uniform and a visored cap with its skull and crossbones. It came back with a rush:The place was Ravensbruck and the man who was making his way forward had been a guardone of the most cruel guards. Now he was in front of me, hand thrust out. I was face to face with one of my captors and my blood seemed to freeze. Fraulein, will you forgive me?Corrie ten Boom lived with her family in Holland for fifty years before the outbreak of World War II. Hiding Jewish refugees led to the familys arrest and Corrie was imprisoned in a German concentration camp. Released after ten months, she tramped the world with a burning desire to tell others that Jesus is a reality, that He lives, that He is victor. Prsentation de l'diteur The Story that Begins Where The Hiding Place Ends, Join Corrie on a worldwide trip that could only have been planned by God. Corrie ten Boom lived with her family in Holland for fifty years before the outbreak of World War II. Hiding Jewish refugees led to the family's arrest and Corrie was imprisoned in a German concentration camp. Released after ten months, she tramped the world with a burning desire to tell others that Jesus is a reality, that He lives, that He is victor. Biographie de l'auteur Corrie ten Boom was a Dutch watchmaker and writer who, along with her family, was imprisoned for helping numerous Jews escape the Nazi Holocaust during World War II. She was knighted by the queen of the Netherlands in recognition of her efforts and was named Righteous Among the Nations by Israel. Her bestselling book The Hiding Place recalls her ordeal. She died in 1983.
