Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThe second thriller in the New York Times No.1 bestselling series featuring Penn Cage: a man who must face the dark heart of the Deep South and question everything he believes inOne dead girl. And a town full of secretsRape and murder arent new to the Deep South, but when the body of a popular high school girl is found dumped in the local river, the whole town of Natchez, Mississippi, is shocked.Penn Cage no longer practises law, but when his best friend Drew is accused of the murder and asks for help, Penn must face the hardest questions of his life:Can he defend Drew against the town, the police and overwhelming evidence?Or could it be true that his friend is a brutal killer who has deceived Penn and everyone else?Revue de presselles's way of telling the story lifts him clear of the pack ... into a different league. (Observer on BLOOD MEMORY)One of America's top new crime writers. (Observer on Greg les)Alarming, believable, and utterly consuming ... my favourite kind of novel ... resonates long after the final page is turned. (Dan Brown, author of THE DA VINCI CODE, on DARK MA)Edge-of-the-seat thrills all the way.
